

The three closest recipe pairs can have different observed outcomes

Distances use normalised fractions. Bars show sample SD. Differences may reflect response shape or unrecorded experimental factors.